

Biography

Artist Name: Éva KOVÁCS
(Boncsér Éva)

"The world of colors as a magnet attracts itself, and in this enchanted world I find happiness here."

I was born on 26 July 1962 in Ózd.

The desire for creation has already been in my childhood with incredible force, I have drawn, painted, handcrafted.

During my primary school studies, my teachers have suggested an artistic career for me, but unfortunately life has moved in a different direction. As a Chemical Technician I worked at BorsodChem Wanhua for more than 35 years.

I started to deal with oil painting more seriously in 2006, but with family and work, I could spend very little time before painting.

At the end of 2014 I decided to give up my life and do what makes me happy and happier.

The world of colors and the testing and mastering of the technical methods with oil have given me more and more imagination.

First and foremost, still life and landscape painting are close to me, but I am happy to paint portraits, lifestyles and modern and abstract images.

I sign my works with my maiden name.

Through the Internet, I also joined the art groups of social networking sites where I have been rewarded with various international awards.

The PORTRETISTO (portrait painter) has been successful on several occasions on an international project, and I painted the portraits of several artists.

and at the same time in September 2015, I joined the JOSE GALVAN ARTSCAD international library.

My creation by Anna German of a Polish singer, created under the Planet Anna project he was also in an international album. I participated in numerous exhibitions and appeared in several Anthologies with my works.

I am officially a member of the Association of Hungarian Artists' Association and the Cserhát Artist Circle.

In 2016, the jury announced two of my works, which were submitted to the "Writing Time Jubilee Competition" by the Association of Hungarian Artists' Association.

Awarded a prize and Bronze prize. Subsequently, in 2017, he was invited to the "From Earth" competition for "My Revival"

I got my first prize with my artwork the jury awarded him with István Bor. In 2018, I submitted my works for the competition announced by the Cserhát Art Circle, the jury was awarded with János Batsányi Fine Arts Award, Mihály Tompa Prize and Imagination Art Award.

At the end of 2018, Master of Arts Title Bronze Graduated from the MAIT Association.

In November 2017, I opened my own gallery in Dédestapolcsány. I have been an artistic director on many Scenic Days.

I have a number of my own private creations, and I have donated images for charity, public institutions and galleries.

I try to master the tricks of painting in an autodidactic way, and I constantly strive to achieve the best possible result.

I cannot boast of renowned masters, but my vocation is my teacher.

Artist name: ÉVA KOVÁCS
(Éva Boncsér)

